A GOD-HONORING MARRIAGE

Cody Westbrook

“Oh magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt His name together” (Ps. 34:3). This passage well summarizes the goal of a God-honoring marriage. God created woman because it was not good for the man to be alone (Gen. 2:18). Adam needed a helper who was fitting, or appropriate (Gen. 2:18). Therefore, God brought Adam and Even together as husband and wife. The covenant relationship of marriage is God’s way of meting a number of man’s needs—companionship, love, and intimacy, among many others. But the chief goal of marriage is growing closer to God and to one another, and glorying God together as a couple.

There are a number of challenges to glorifying God in marriage. Here are a few:

- An unauthorized union - Matt. 19:9.
- Co-habitation before marriage - Matt.

19:4-6; Heb. 13:4.

- Starting off on the wrong foot - 1 Pet. 3:3; 1 Tim. 2:9; Gal. 5:19; Eph. 5:18.
- Lack of worship attendance - Heb. 10:25.
- A “house divided” - Matt. 12:25.

There are also many biblical principles which, when applied, will help us to accomplish the goal of glorifying God in marriage. Consider the following points:

- Selflessness - Phil. 2:3-4.
- Spiritual growth - 2 Pet. 3:18.
- Proper Priorities - Matt. 6:33
- A willingness to admit wrong - Luke 17:3
- True love - 1 Cor. 13.

As a helpful exercise, sit down with your spouse and your Bible and study these passages closely. Are you honoring God in your marriage as you should?
