

Fee Rocha is first and foremost a child of God who is doing the best she can to serve Him daily in all aspects of her life.

She is married to Dustin, and they have three children, a daughter and two sons. They have grown their family by one son-in-law and three grand puppies. The Rochas serve God in Allen, Oklahoma where Dustin is the pulpit minister.

Fee and Dustin are graduates of Bear Valley Bible Institute. She holds a degree in Biblical Studies as well as a Bachelor's of Science in psychology. Her desire to serve victims of sexual violence and other trauma has moved her to seek her training to offer mental health therapy. She graduated from Colorado Christian University School of Counseling with a masters in Clinical Mental Health Counseling in December of 2024

Fee teaches in the College of Adult and Graduate Studies at Colorado Christian University with an emphasis in Psychology from a Christian perspective. And of course, she carries a full caseload offering therapy with a focus on trauma using Eye Movement Reprocessing and Desensitization (EMDR) to clients of all ages.

In her spare time (ha!) she propagates plants and cooks for anyone willing to sit at the dinner table in their home.
